RE: McDONNELL DOUGLAS 500E TURBINE AND RAVEN 1 R44 HELICOPTER SERVICES FOR QUEENSLAND, NORTHERN TERRITORY, WESTERN AUSTRALIA AND NEW SOUTH WALES

Heliway Pty Ltd has operated helicopters for the past 18 years providing aerial work and corporate services to a range of clients including support for Ergon Energy, Mining, Primary and Agricultural Industries. Heliway Pty Ltd has now in operation a McDonnell Douglas 500 turbine helicopter and a Raven 1 R44 helicopter. Both aircraft are extremely versatile with significant potential to conduct various aerial work services such as:

- Mining and Exploration Support
- Government and Corporate Aerial Work
- Mineral and Geochemical Sampling
- Heavy Lifting
- Emergency Relief (Fire and Flood)
- Wildlife Survey
- Feral and Diseased Animal Control (including data retrieval for organisations such as Parks and Wildlife, DPI and F)
- Photography – Still and Motion (Low Level Filming)
- Power line Inspection and Gas Operations
- Sling Loads (Long line Operations)
- Pipeline Inspection

We are pleased to present these accessible and affordable management tools to complement our existing aerial services. With years of aerial experience we can now provide detailed inspection reports including high resolution digital photos, GPS locations and damage descriptions. Both the McDonnell Douglas 500 and the Raven 1 R44 helicopters provide cost effective tools for maintenance management. Positioning and logistical support for aircraft can be carried out immediately with minimal notice into any location including remote areas.

Heliway Pty Ltd has been providing a broad range of helicopter services for the past 18 years. Chief Pilot, Wayne Prichard is highly experienced with over 18 years flying helicopters in a wide variety of operations. Because of the demand for our expertise and experience, we regularly travel considerable distances throughout Queensland, Northern Territory, Western Australia and New South Wales to provide aerial work and corporate services to clients.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide information on our helicopter services. We look forward to continuing our first-rate operations, and hope that the addition to our fleet, can be of service to you.

Regards

Wayne Prichard.
